Reports:

1. Melissa A. Wehr
Township Manager

1. I promised a resident that I would bring up the discussion regarding a rain date for Trick or Treat. They thought there should be a rain date for Trick or Treat and would like Council to consider having a rain date. Mrs. Murray of Sherwood Street appeared before the Board representing the neighborhood. She requested a rain date each year. The Manager shared other municipalities' rain dates. Council agreed to have Trick or Treat on Friday, October 28 with a rain date of Saturday, October 29 with a rain date going forward. It will be posted on our website.

2. I would like to have a brief Executive Session after Council Meeting regarding ongoing litigation to bring everyone up to date.

1. Al Kortze, P.E.
Township Engineer

1. Update on the Allendale Sanitary Sewer Project. The project has been slow. They are encountering a lot of underground utilities. There were a few that went unmarked. Contractor is doing a good job progressing through everything. No complaints from Allendale or residents in the area.

A Councilmember mentioned that the timing of the signal lights on Airport Road are not in sync and there is a lengthy wait period before traffic moves through the lights, in particular, at
